

Mayoral Proclamation

WHEREAS, Theodore J. Kanavas ("Ted") was a lifelong Brookfield resident and 1979 graduate of Brookfield East High School; and

WHEREAS, Ted was devoted to improving his community and served three years on the Elmbrook School board; and

WHEREAS, Ted continued serving his family, friends, and neighbors in Brookfield as a State Senator from Wisconsin's 33rd State Senate district for nearly ten years; and

WHEREAS, Ted also served the Brookfield community as a volunteer for several local groups, such as the Brookfield Bulldog Baseball Organization; and

WHEREAS, Ted was the loving father of Kelly, Nick, and Kate, and devoted husband of Mary; and

WHEREAS, Ted was guided by his faith and actively supported his parish, the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Steven V. Ponto, Mayor of the City of Brookfield, Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim Sunday, April 29, 2018, to be in the City of Brookfield, Wisconsin, and recognize him for his public service, especially his service to this community, and for a life well lived.

Signed and sealed this 19th day of April, in the year Two Thousand and Eighteen.

Steven V. Ponto, MAYOR
City of Brookfield
