Come Join the Music!

About Us

Brookfield Civic Chorus was founded in 1986 as an organization to provide the community with an opportunity to be involved in recreational music.

The Brookfield Civic Chorus has performed for a wide variety of audiences, including:

- Spring and Winter concerts at the Sharon Lynne Wilson Center for the Arts
- Performances at the Wisconsin Memorial Park
- Performances for a variety of retirement communities centers
- Brookfield International Friendship Association

No Auditions!

There are no auditions to be a part of the Brookfield Civic Chorus. Members of the group span a wide range of musical skills, ages, occupations, and backgrounds. Dues are paid on a per semester basis. Rehearsals are held on Tuesdays from 7-8:30 PM during the months of September to December and January to May at Brookfield Park and Recreation 2000 N Calhoun Rd.

"If you can talk, you can sing!"
